CORE1-13 THE FATE OF CAMP 15

CORE26 Respect of Horizon Imports

You fulfilled the terms of your contract, and even went above and beyond the call of duty. This has earned you the respect of Horizon Imports, a trading coster based in the city of Ankhapur. Should ever find yourself in need of future employment, Horizon Imports would be more than happy to have you work for them again. They also have factors stationed in the major trade hubs of Athkatla, Baldur's Gate, Westgate, and Waterdeep, who might be able to assist you (DM's discretion) with gathering information, finding unusual items, or other tasks relating to commerce and trade.

You have also earned the enmity of Featherlight Mercantile, one of Horizon's rivals. The halflings of the Featherlight clan may someday seek revenge upon you for your actions.

CORE27 Featherlight Ally

You aided Thomis Featherlight, self-described halfling merchant extraordinaire, with his efforts to secure a supply of pearls from the area near the Lake of Steam. The Featherlight halfling clan is grateful to you. They have contacts in the large halfling communities within the nation of Amn and all along the Sea of Fallen Stars who might be able to assist you in various ways (DM's discretion) if you approach them properly. Featherlight Mercantile tends to be quite ruthless in its approach to commerce, which is a reflection of the sometimes unsavory nature of the Featherlight clan itself. Thus, their assistance will tend towards those types of things that you might not necessarily want the local authorities to know about.

You have also earned the enmity of Horizon Imports, one of Featherlight's rivals. The members of Horizon Imports may someday seek revenge upon you for your actions.
