CORE82 Honorary Citizen of Urmlaspyr

For your service to the city, the leaders of Urmlaspyr have awarded you all the rights and privileges of citizenship during a grand feast in your honor. You are given a golden medal with the outline of your face on one side and the crest of Urmlaspyr on the reverse (worth 25 gp if sold). If you are interested, you are also granted the use of a luxury apartment with furniture in one of the better parts of the city, rent-free (this has no game mechanical effects other than giving you a place to rest or store items). None of these benefits require you to give up or forswear any other national, regional, or meta-organization affiliations or allegiances.

In addition, you gain one (and only one) of the following glory boons: beloved performer or battle-scarred champion. This does not count as one of your Treasure selections from any adventure, nor does it cost a found-item slot. You initially gain the level 1 or level 3 version of your chosen boon (strike through the boon you do not choose). You can buy the higher-level versions of your chosen boon by paying the difference in market price in gold pieces when your character level is at least as high as the upgraded level of the boon. This boon never expires, and you can keep this boon active at the same time as one other alternative reward (in other words, this reward is an exception to the normal LFR rules: it does not count as your one active divine boon).

CORE83 Trusted Agent of Cormyr

Through dedicated and successful service, you have earned the trust of Ambassador Deskyr Thanterim, who has recommended you to the Royal Family of Cormyr. You are offered a job as an Agent of the Crown. While the annual stipend is merely a pittance in comparison to your adventuring income, the post does provide you with limited rights within the kingdom. Cormyrean authority figures are automatically helpful to you under normal circumstances, and they will ignore any minor crimes that you commit while pursuing missions for the good of the kingdom. Of course, the Crown does not look kindly on its agents abusing these privileges, and this position can be revoked if the DM feels you have done something particularly egregious.

If you are willing to openly swear your allegiance to Cormyr, revoking any ties to other governments or nations, you are also knighted. You are given a personal signet ring, and treated with the respect due to minor nobility. (You may in fact be treated with slightly more respect, since unlike many of Cormyr's minor nobles, you actually earned the title.) If you have already been knighted by Cormyr from a different Story Award, or if you earn a Cormyrean Knighthood in a future adventure, you are raised to the rank of Knight Exalted. In addition to the status of knighthood, you are called to join council meetings on matters of governance and warfare. You are granted a small estate, and are considered a landed noble by right of service.
